City of Salisbury to Temporarily Close Mocksville Avenue

Salisbury_North Carolina_November 13 – The City of Salisbury will temporarily close Mocksville Avenue between Barker Avenue and Mahaley Avenue on Saturday, November 17 to accommodate removal of a temporary structure.

This section of roadway will be closed at 8:00 a.m. and will remain closed through late Saturday afternoon, at which point Mocksville Avenue will reopen to through traffic and normal traffic patterns will resume. All traffic should seek alternate routes during this timeframe. Grove Street and Henderson Street will provide alternate access to Rowan Regional Medical Center.

Inquiries regarding this temporary road closure may be directed to Traffic Operations Manager, Wendy Brindle at (704) 638-5269.
