To register for this free event please call Diana Moghrabi at 704-638-5242.
 - (d) The City of Salisbury has been named a finalist for the National Civic League’s 2016 All-American City Award, along with 20 other municipalities across the United States, only 10 of which will be named an official All-America City. The Salisbury application features three programs that focus on the well-being of children at home and at school. The programs include the Norvell Theatre, the Knox Co-Principals program and Fit for Motion through Novant Health and the Rowan County YMCA. The Salisbury delegation will travel to Denver, Colorado in June to make its formal presentation in front of the National Civic League judges. We invite all members of the community to support this initiative. Being named as an All-America City is not just an honor for a city, but it is an opportunity to grow our economy by attracting new businesses, boosting civic engagement and increasing tourism.
15. Council to go into closed session concerning a personnel matter as allowed by NCGS 143-318.11(a)(6).
16. Recess.
