Celebrate Global Garbage Man Day!

As communities around the world celebrate Global Garbage Man Day on Monday, June 17 (and for some the celebration continues all week), Salisbury honors its own solid waste collection team. Kudos are in order for (pictured left to right), Tony Dito, Israel Vazquez, Jonathan Durham, Jeff Cardwell, Mark Pulliam, Izet Dizdarevic, Danny Rogers and James Horne, for keeping our neighborhoods clean.

"Garbage men are a sign of a healthy city," said John Arwood, National Garbage Man Day founder.

How can I show my appreciation?

Place your bins correctly.

When placing your bins at the curb, keep them at least 10 feet away from mailboxes, parked cars or telephone lines.

Also, turn them so the wheels face your home and the lid opens towards the street.

Join the recycling effort!

Let's take some ownership for our garbage contributions.

Consider ways you can reduce, recycle and reuse the things being thrown in the garbage from your own home.

Say 'Thank you.'

Consider contacting public service (704) 638-5260 with a word of thanks and appreciation for all the weeks they do their job well!

Hurricane Season Is Here

The Atlantic hurricane season starts June 1st. To keep your family safe this hurricane season and to minimize risks associated with severe weather, follow this advice from the Salisbury's public safety officials.

A good emergency plan includes a supply of prepared foods that don't have to be cooked. Camp stoves and barbecue grills must be used outdoors only. Otherwise, they can cause CO poisoning.

If you are required to leave your home, you may be placed in a community evacuation shelter. In the shelter, immediately identify two exits closest to your location. Make sure that you can get outside from both exits.

For more information about hurricane preparedness, please visit ReadyNC.org.

Powerful storms will knock down tree limbs and power lines, causing electricity to go out:

- Never touch downed power lines
- Stay away from it, and report it to the power company
- If the wire is sparking or touching a building, call 911

Have an emergency kit prepared before a disaster. When putting together this container:

- Keep your kit in one place and make sure your family know where it is located
- Put enough water, food and supplies in your kit for 3-7 days per person and pet in your family

Expect prolonged electrical outages after a major storm. Buy flashlights, and stock up on batteries. If you must use a candle when the power is out:

- Make sure that the candle is at least 12 inches away from anything that can burn
- Blow the candle out if you leave the room, get sleepy or go to bed

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

JHERICA IJAMES, SPD DETECTIVE

Jherica Ijames is a detective with the Salisbury Police Department. Specializing in sex crimes and child abuse crimes, she spends her days following up on crimes that have already been committed.

In 2017 Ijames began her career in law enforcement as a patrol officer before transitioning to detective in 2019. Her job entails going to crime scenes, interviewing witnesses, working with crime scene investigators and pursuing leads to identify suspects.

"I decided to go into law enforcement because I wanted to give back and invest in the community that invested so much into me. Each morning, I wake up with the determination to go above and beyond with each person I encounter. This role allows me to be a support system and a voice for the people who feel they may have lost their voice."
