

2020 SALISBURY SCULPTURE SHOW

CALL FOR ENTRIES

www.salisburync.gov/SculptureShow

The Salisbury Sculpture Show is now accepting entries for 2020.

The Salisbury Public Art Committee announces a call for entries for the 2020 Salisbury Sculpture Show. Artists are invited to submit their outdoor pieces for consideration in the award-winning art installation program by Friday, Dec. 20.

The Salisbury Sculpture Show is a 10-month art show in which a select group of sculptures is placed throughout Salisbury, including in the downtown area and at the city's three colleges. Last year, more than 50 entries were judged, with three sculptures chosen as winners.

In the upcoming show, pieces chosen for display will be carefully sited to enhance the sculptures' visibility and ease of access. Artists may submit up to three entries. High-resolution images with a completed entry form, and up to three photos per entry sculpture are encouraged. Selected artists will transport and install pieces with on-site assistance where needed and prearranged. The city will provide concrete pads and installation support. Sculptors are responsible for anchoring systems. The art will be insured by the City of Salisbury.

Artists should submit a PDF document that includes at least two high-resolution images of each submitted work. Submissions are a separate PDF document than the entries into the annual Salisbury Sculpture Show.

Selected artists will receive a $1,250 stipend for each piece chosen for the sculpture show.

Christmas Bicycle Giveaway

The Salisbury Police Department is partnering with Gerry Wood Automobile Dealership on the 18th annual Christmas Bicycle Program. The program provides bicycles for less fortunate children who reside within the city limits. The bicycles are limited and preference will be given to children of families who are in the most need of assistance. Children must reside at the given address of the parent/guardian and applicants must live within the city limits of Salisbury.

Paper applications must be completed and delivered to the Salisbury Police Department no later than Friday, Nov. 29. There is no need for applicants to call the police department.

All applications must contain a working, daytime phone number. All applicants who qualify will receive a telephone call from the Salisbury Police Department, where we will discuss the date of delivery and other information.

Applications are available at:

- Salisbury Police Department
130 E. Liberty
- City Hall
217 S. Main St.
- Customer Service Center
1415 S. Martin Luther King
- City Office Building
132 N. Main St.

Help Us Plan For Salisbury's Future

The City of Salisbury is collaborating with McAdams, a professional engineering and design firm, to design plans that will improve the safety, mobility and appearance of a 10-block section of Main Street.

The project is in the early stages of collecting information and gathering community input.

This input from residents will include values, character and vision, and will help create multiple alternatives for the street layout, including parking, sidewalks and landscaping.

To help us plan for Salisbury's future:

Looking For Lost Families

The Dixonville-Lincoln Memorial Task Force is seeking your assistance in identifying possible families that may have been buried in the Dixonville Cemetery located on Old Concord Road.

As Phase 1 of the Dixonville Cemetery Memorial Walk progresses, it is important that we connect with relatives to ensure each person buried at the cemetery is honored.

If you know someone who may have been buried at the Dixonville Cemetery, please contact Emily Perry at (704) 645-8710 or (980) 234-9142.

For more information about the Dixonville-Lincoln Memorial, visit: www.dixonvillememorial.com.

Don't Get Clogged By F.O.G.

Don't want a sewer backup over the holidays? Fats, oils, grease and wax (FOG) can clog your pipes. Put FOG where it belongs - in the trash.

Just in time for the holiday cooking season, Salisbury-Rowan Utilities has a few tips for discarding leftover fats, oils, grease and wax, also known as FOG.

When warm fat, oil, grease and wax are poured down the sink or flushed down the toilet they may not travel very far through your pipes before they begin to form large, gross accumulations with other debris and chemicals and stick to the walls of your pipes. These FOG deposits could cause future sewer backups in your home, condominium, restaurant, or other buildings.

When FOG goes down the drain, it hardens and causes sewer pipes to clog. This can lead to a sanitary sewer overflow (SSO) where raw sewage actually backs up into your home, lawn, neighborhood, and streets. Not only does this mess cause health issues, it also can run into a nearby stream or river, which affects our drinking water. If your pipes become clogged from putting FOG down the drain, it can be a very expensive problem to fix.

To avoid household and environmental damage as well as a costly bill, NEVER put FOG down the drain!

Here are tips from SRU mascot Greasy:

- Can your grease and throw it in the trash
- Scrape food scraps in the trash
- Don't flush your FOG. Toilet pipes can get clogged too!

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

SCOTTY ROBINSON, SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER

In 2016, Salisbury native Scotty Robinson joined the City of Salisbury as a human resource analyst focused on recruitment. A year later, he recruited himself to join the Salisbury Police Department.

As a school resource officer, Scotty maintains a close partnership with students and school personnel to provide a safe school environment for everyone on campus. He also participates in school functions, checks-in with students to prevent juvenile delinquency and works to increase the accessibility and visibility of police to the school community.

"I'm proud to be back in Salisbury making a difference in our community. I could have been somewhere else traveling the world but chose to come back home. My goal is to provide younger people with the same opportunities that I received while growing up here. People may see me with a police badge but I am the same person I was before the badge - Scotty."
