• Host biannual neighborhood leaders meetings

Ms. Perry indicated Community Appearance Grants create:

• More jobs
• Increased tourism
• Higher tax values
• Upper-floor use
• Attractive downtown
• Renovations projects

Ms. Perry informed Council she attended the 2011 North Carolina Main Street Conference in Shelby, North Carolina. She stated she is proud to be a part of Salisbury, and noted how far the City has come compared to other cities.

Mayor Kluttz thanked the committee and staff for the impressive report.

Mayor Pro Tem Blackwelder stated it appears the CAC touches every part of the City, and pointed out the CAC partners with many groups to make Salisbury better. Ms. Blackwelder noted the City of High Point visited Salisbury in 2010 to learn how the downtown has been made so beautiful and successful, and she added she thinks the CAC has a large part in Salisbury’s success.

GOALS AND HIGHLIGHTS – HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

Ms. Anne Lyles, Chair of the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC), and Ms. Janet Gapen, staff liaison, presented the Highlights and Goals for the Historic Preservation Commission.

Ms. Lyles reviewed 2010 Certificates of Appropriateness:

- Consider expanding 2007 local bill that limits demolition in the downtown; amend the bill to include residential districts
- Promote an event in celebration of National Historic Preservation Month (May)
Ms. Lyles expressed her appreciation for staff support to the Commission.

Mayor Kluttz stated the City appreciates what the Historic Preservation Commission does for the community, and for their hard work throughout the year.

GOALS AND HIGHLIGHTS – HUMAN RELATIONS COUNCIL

Reverend Whayne Hougland, Chair of the Salisbury-Rowan Human Relations Council (HRC), Mr. Mark Lewis, HRC Treasurer, and Ms. Ruth Kennerly, staff liaison, presented the HRC Goals and Highlights.

Reverend Hougland indicated the HRC had a great year, and he presented the HRC Vision Statement and Mission Statement:

- Vision Statement – “An inclusive community that lives with harmony, mutual respect and appreciation of diversity among all people”
- Mission Statement – “To create a secure environment of hospitality, inclusiveness, acceptance and appreciation of the diversity of the community”

Reverend Hougland stated it is important the HRC exists, particularly in a time where incivility has grown in all areas of public discourse. He added the HRC can show the broader community a diverse group of people of varied race, ethnic, cultural, religious, social, and economic backgrounds can come together and live in harmony. He asked members of the HRC in attendance to stand and be recognized.

Reverend Hougland reviewed the 2009-2010 Highlights:

- Coordinated La Fiesta de Rowan
- Coordinated the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. 2010 Celebration –
  - Breakfast
  - Procession to Freedom Cemetery
  - Ceremony
  - Parade
  - Festivities
- Coordinated the second Public Forum – Meet Your Neighbor
- Coordinated the Elizabeth Duncan Koontz Humanitarian Awards Banquet
- Coordinated two Mayor’s Spirit Luncheons
- Coordinated Let’s Get Connected Day

Mr. Lewis presented the proposed 2011-2012 Budget Request, with comparison budgets from the last three years.
Mr. Lewis noted the HRC operates from three sources of income:

- Governmental - $3,500 each from the City of Salisbury and Rowan County
- Program Income
  - Tickets to Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast
- Corporate Sponsorships
  - Ranges from $17,000 to $20,000

Reverend Hougland reviewed the 2010-2011 goals:

- Update by-laws and ordinances

Reverend Hougland indicated the HRC held a retreat in October 2010, and discussed the goals that were realistic for the HRC, in comparison to its existing Ordinances. He stated the HRC is working on a request to amend its Ordinances to reflect the fact the HRC is not able to effectively mediate complaints in regards to Equal Employment Opportunities and Fair Housing, as stated in the Ordinance creating the HRC. He commented a volunteer board with rotating membership is not geared to do that type of work, and the HRC would like to amend the Ordinance to better reflect what the HRC can accomplish with integrity.

Reverend Hougland continued reviewing the 2010-2011 Goals:

- Review committee membership assignments
- Evaluate events
Create a professional resource directory
Review orientation materials
Increase presence at public events

Reverend Hougland stated the HRC wants to identify the needs of the community and develop new programs to address those needs. He indicated he thinks this will foster a community of mutual respect.

Mayor Kluttz thanked Reverend Hougland, Mr. Lewis and Ms. Kennerly for the excellent report. She stated the Human Relations Council is the foundation for the City to be successful. She pointed out the number of events sponsored by the HRC each year demonstrates that race relations are celebrated more than once a year. She added the Martin Luther King, Jr. events were a great success this year, and she expressed her appreciation for the work done by the HRC throughout the year.

GOALS AND HIGHLIGHTS – PLANNING BOARD

Mr. Robert Cockerl, Chair of the Planning Board, and Mr. Preston Mitchell, staff liaison, presented the Goals and Highlights for the Planning Board.

Mr. Cockerl reviewed the Highlights for the Planning Board:

- Six conditional district petitions
- 13 rezoning petitions
- 11 Land Development Ordinance (LDO) text amendment petitions

Mr. Cockerl reviewed the 2010-2011 Goals:

- Completion of the Comprehensive Bicycle Plan – wrap-up
- Completion of the Eastern Gateway Area Plan – completed
- Conduct an Open Space study – underway
- Conduct a study of the LDO Use Matrix – Spring 2011
- Conduct a split-zoning study by Planning District – begin Summer 2011 and will carry over to next fiscal year
- Investigate the development of a Southern I-85 Corridor Area Plan whereby the end of the goal year the budget, geographical parameters, and partners would be determined for possible execution in 2012-2013
- Conduct a study to consider LDO amendments that would allow for Concept (Preliminary) Conditional Districts
- Conduct a study to consider LDO amendments that would develop fencing standards

Mayor Kluttz thanked the Planning Board and staff for their dedication and hard work, and commented their dedication makes Council’s job easier.

Mayor Kluttz indicated Council has received Boards and Commissions reports at its last several meetings in preparation of the upcoming City Council Retreat. She expressed Council’s gratitude to all of the volunteers on the Boards and Commissions who give their time to make the City a special place.

UPDATE – LASH DRIVE CONNECTOR TRANSIT SERVICE

Public Services Director Tony Cinquemani, and Transit Manager Rodney Harrison addressed Council regarding the temporary Lash Drive Connector transit service. Mr. Harrison informed Council data has been compiled regarding the Lash Drive Connector, and it will be shared at the next Transportation Advisory Board (TAB) meeting to be held Thursday, February 10, 2011. He indicated he will return to Council following that meeting to present the TAB recommendation in regards to the Lash Drive Connector.

Mr. Cinquemani indicated the information presented in Council’s Agenda packet is for Council review prior to being presented to the Transportation Advisory Board.

Councilman Woodson commented he has received citizen comments regarding the inability to obtain mammograms. He explained mammograms are only offered through Rowan Regional Medical Center’s Julian Road facility, and there is no transit service to this location.

COMMENTS FROM THE CITY MANAGER

(a) “Single-Stream Recycling Center Visit”

City Manager David Treme recognized Solid Waste Manager Lynn Hillard, and Solid Waste Supervisor Brian Moore to present a DVD regarding single-stream recycling. Mr. Treme noted citizens may see recycling items being combined into one truck, and have the perception the materials are not being recycled. He noted it is more efficient to handle the materials as a single-stream where the materials are combined in the truck.

Mr. Hillard thanked Access 16 Station Manager Jason Parks for working with the Sanitation Division to produce the video. He explained the video was filmed at the Charlotte Recycling Center, which is operated by Fairfield County Recycling (FCR). He added FCR has approximately 22 recycling operations along the East coast. The video was then presented to Council.

Mayor Kluttz thanked Mr. Moore for his participation in the video, and for presenting the single-stream recycling program. She noted the importance of the message, and encouraged all citizens to recycle.

Councilman Kennedy stated it is important to continue airing the video on Access 16 to explain what can and cannot be recycled.
(b) 26th Annual Future Directions and Goal Setting Conference

Mr. Treme informed Council the Agenda for the 26th Annual Future Directions and Goal Setting Conference will be published by the end of the week. He noted the topics will include financial forecasting, economic impact of broadband on communities, and a review of goals adopted by Council at its 2010 conference.

(c) Fibrant

Mr. Treme informed Council the first Fibrant billing was mailed December 3, 2010, with approximately 480 customers. He noted the best advertising has been through satisfied Fibrant customers, many of whom have volunteered to place Fibrant signs in their yard. Mr. Treme stated advertisements with stories of satisfied customers have been placed in the Salisbury Post, and similar stories will continue to be placed in the paper.

Mr. Treme indicated North Hills Christian School requested annexation into the City in order to receive Fibrant service. He noted the school’s director has stated the new technology has enhanced the learning environment for their students.

Mr. Treme stated Council’s upcoming Retreat will include speakers addressing the future of television, new trends available through Fibrant, and the economic impact of broadband on the community. He noted he receives compliments daily regarding Fibrant installations, quality of the television picture, speed of the internet, and clarity of the telephone.

Mr. Treme thanked Fibrant Sales and Marketing Director Len Clark, Public Information and Communication Director Karen Wilkinson, Fibrant Sales Specialist Audrey Eudy, and Assistant City Manager Doug Paris for their work to create a sales and marketing strategy for Fibrant. He commented the group is working together to address the start-up issues, and staff continues to make continuous improvements on operations. Mr. Treme stated he feels good about the progress that has been made, and he hopes to continue making improvements in order to make Council proud of its decision to implement Fibrant which will have long-term benefits to the community. He also thanked Director of Broadband Mike Crowell for his work to bring the Fibrant utility to its present state, along with Management Services Director John Sofley for financial information to implement the utility and coordinate customer service. Mr. Treme commented he is excited about what the future will hold, and noted the City is in a position to offer an outstanding service that is only available in approximately 50 communities throughout the entire country.

Mayor Kluttz pointed out she recently attended an open house at North Hills Christian School, which was the first school to be connected to Fibrant. She noted she was able to see first-hand the excitement and enthusiasm of the students using the new technology, and she added it can be available to all students within the City limits. She stated she looks forward to all students having access to this technology advantage, and it is very exciting for the future.
MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

(a) North Carolina League of Municipalities Advocacy and Goal Setting Agenda Session

Councilman Miller stated he attended the North Carolina League of Municipalities Advocacy and Goal Setting Agenda Session January 20, 2011 in Raleigh, North Carolina. He reported there were 35 goals presented to delegates from across North Carolina. He pointed out that the eighth highest ranking goal is to support access to broadband and preserve municipalities’ rights to provide services to their citizens. He commented he was pleased others within the State recognize and support the importance of this initiative.

Mayor Kluttz thanked Mr. Miller for attending the Session, and all he did to encourage broadband to be ranked eight on the list of goals. She commented there has not been a more important time for the North Carolina League of Municipalities to lobby the legislature for municipal broadband because the technology is new and there are many new legislators who need to hear what is really important to cities. She added when broadband is listed as number eight, it indicates more local governments than Salisbury realizes its importance.

(b) North Carolina Main Street Awards

Mr. Miller stated he attended the North Carolina Main Street Awards ceremony in Shelby, North Carolina. He noted there were 20 categories of top awards, or awards of merit, and he is pleased to report the City of Salisbury won three of the 20 awards. He pointed out the awards were for the Norvell Theater renovation, the Ghost Walk/Nights Out event, and the design award for the Center City Lot, which is the parking lot on East Innes Street. Mr. Miller indicated the City was well represented, and he understands the Rowan County Tourism Authority is working to have the event held in Salisbury again in the near future.

Mayor Kluttz stated Salisbury is very unique because it has wonderful people doing wonderful things to make the City such a special place.

(c) City Council Retreat

Mayor Kluttz announced the Salisbury City Council will hold its 26th Annual Future Directions and Goal Setting Retreat February 10-11, 2011.
ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Ms. Blackwell, seconded by Mr. Woodson. All council members in attendance agreed unanimously to adjourn. The meeting was adjourned at 5:17 p.m.
