Councilmember Miller pointed out both firms can accommodate a three to four month timeline. He noted Find Great People proposed $35,000 and BakerTilly proposed $24,500 plus optional services which could add up to the same amount. He indicated the City would be pleased with either firm.

Councilmember Miller stated Council is vested with picking the next City Manager, and he added allowing community input early in the process is appropriate. He emphasized confidentiality is critical during the process, and he cautioned if candidate information is leaked it could undermine the candidate’s effectiveness in their current position.

Councilmember Sheffield indicated Council heard from two great firms with different perspectives but she supports BakerTilly. She pointed out she liked the firm’s willingness to look for a candidate that is a fit for the community, its approach to diversity and inclusion, and its engagement with potential candidates and the community. She commented BakerTilly has an existing candidate pool. She stated Ms. Lewis would be the point of contact for the City and she has a background in city management.

Councilmember Miller noted he liked the weekly status reports proposed by BakerTilly. He stated due diligence is important and it will help Council determine why a candidate is leaving their current position. He indicated he is leaning toward BakerTilly, but he noted the search could be successful with either firm.

Thereupon, Councilmember Post made a motion to enter a contract with BakerTilly for executive recruiting services for the next City Manager.

Councilmember Sheffield pointed out BakerTilly offers a one-year guarantee which is important in today’s job market.
